Deliberate Face to FACE: MEET THE BUILDERS

3.31.17

6:30 PM | 1317 G St. NW 20005

How do we build housing that is universally accessible*?

Join Focus Attitude and Commitment to Excellence, a team of DC homeless and formerly homeless advocates, for their second town hall style event. The audience of housed and un-housed community members will pose questions to experts about building affordable housing. Please add your voice to the deliberation- an intentional discussion towards making a decision.

PANEL:

Stephen "Steve" Glaude | President and CEO of Coalition for Nonprofit Housing and Economic Development

Sarah Scruggs | Deputy Executive Director of Manna, Inc.

Betty Gentle | Advocacy and Community Engagement Specialist at So Others Might Eat (SOME)

Morgan Jones | Street Sense Vendor, Film Producer and Self-Studied Tiny House Expert

Moderator: Joseph Young of the Washington Informer

KEY TOPICS:

- Government support to build affordable housing, ex: Title V of the McKinney Vento Act, National Housing Trust Fund, etc.
- Renovating abandoned structures in DC
- Private funding sources and incentives to build
- *Universal accessibility- financial, physical, mental, location, livelihood, community, etc.
