

Interagency Council On Homelessness (ICH) Meeting

June 18th 2024

Pre-Meeting 1-2:30 PM

Full Council 3-4:30 PM

Martin Luther King Jr Memorial Library

901 G Street NW Washington D.C. 20001

Homeless Persons In Shelters, Those Evicted From Homeless Camps, Public Housing Residents, and Housing Activists are Encouraged to attend This meeting, to Directly Challenge D.C. Government Officials on their Housing Policies, and to support our Grassroot Representatives on the Interagency Council on Homelessness.

People For Fairness Coalition

Ending Housing Instability through Outreach Advocacy and Peer Mentoring

PFFC Invites you to the Martin Luther King Jr Memorial Library for the next Interagency Council On Homelessness (ICH) meeting to:

(1) Send a message to the D.C. Government that the Unhoused and Housing Justice Advocates are not just "TALKING HEADS."

(2) Demonstrate the growing political consciousness of The Homeless; formerly Homeless; and those in Public Housing.

The ICH platform will provide you an:

A. Opportunity to ask your important and tough questions

B. Increase your role for future communication.

C. Register to vote if you have not.

D. Become a part of an ongoing grassroots effort to come together for future events/rallies concerning the importance of

HOUSING JUSTICES FOR ALL !

(Strength in numbers)

June 18th 2024
Pre-Meeting 1-2:30 PM
Meeting 3-4:30PM
Martin Luther King Jr Memorial Library
901 G Street NW Washington D.C. 20001