ADDRESSING HOMELESSNESS IN DC:

Today's Strengths, Today's Challenges

You're Invited to a
Policy Forum

Homelessness in DC, and the District's response, has changed a lot over the past decade, from closing DC General shelter to the expansion of supportive housing to the rise – and then clearing – of tent encampments. Despite progress, great challenges remain.

Join us on July 15 to learn from people with lived experience, practitioners, and policy experts about what is needed now.
